THE MULTIPLICITY OF US IMMIGRANT/FIRST GENERATION WOMEN

Presented by New York Women in Film & Television

On June 2015, 24 women of immigrant and first generation backgrounds of all ages came together for an intense one day video production workshop. Together, they produced a series of three short videos: COMING AND LIVING IN AMERICA, BORDERS INSIDE AND OUT and LUNA'S STORY: THE IMPORTANCE OF ACCEPTING YOURSELF.

Presented by New York Women in Film and Television and taught by Third World Newsreel, this media project was made possible through support from City Council Member Elizabeth Crowley and the Cultural Immigrant Initiative of New York City. (2015, 15 min, US, English subtitles)
